Postcard Fundraising Exhibition 2020

- Together in Isolation

Open Call

We are looking for entries from professional, amateur and first-time artists for our charity fundraising exhibition.

The theme is 'Together in Isolation' and we're inviting you to create a postcard sized image to display alongside others in a future exhibition at Babylon Gallery and an online exhibition now.

Your postcard could be inspired by your time in isolation, on how you feel, the thoughts, memories or ideas that you would like to capture, or what you're looking forward to on the other side!

We welcome drawing, printing, painting, photography, textiles, digital art, collage and mixed media, as long as it's 2 dimensional. We are looking for a range of styles and techniques, as well as work from all ages and experience levels.

The assembled postcards will form part of an exhibition when Babylon Gallery re-opens and we'll also be sharing the entries as they arrive in an online exhibition.

All artwork will be on display at Babylon Gallery, with 60 designs being selected for framing and sale. For more details on how to submit your postcard design, please click here.

If you do not have any appropriate paper, please email office@babylonarts.org.uk to be posted a blank postcard. Blank postcards are also available for collection in the Perspex box outside the Babylon Gallery's riverside door.

Deadline for entries: Open until Further Notice All applicants will be notified when the exhibition dates are set.
