

Advertising & Marketing Teacher Resource

The 8 week Creative Briefs are designed to stimulate real-world thinking and will be supported by a short film/Q&As with the industry professionals who set them. The briefs and accompanying interactive sessions are designed to be delivered remotely and in-line with expected Covid restrictions, with the schools' involvement being supported by Babylon ARTS.

The students will be expected to do 2 hours per week on this project, totalling 16 hours. 8 hours will be delivered in 1-hour lesson times, with the remaining 8 hours being set as homework. The student's response to the Creative Brief should take up 12 of the 16 hours of this project. The other 4 hours will include some time spent by the students researching the particular creative industry sector they are interested in.

Brief Setter: Anne Beamish, Founder of Indie Cambridge.

Indie Cambridge is an independent company celebrating the diversity and individuality unique to the local indie scene and forms a community of indie people who can share their journey together. It is a membership organisation and all the members are independently-owned businesses or individuals in the Cambridgeshire area.

They publish The Indie magazine and have set up the Indie Academy to share skills and knowledge to help indie businesses grow.

Equipment your class will need to fulfil this Creative Brief:

• Computer access.

Live Webinars:

Live webinars and check-ins with the professional setting the Creative Brief will take place in weeks 1, 4 & 8.

- Week 1: The in-school lesson will involve the setting of the 'Brief'. The setting of the brief will include a film, whereby the professional will provide an insight into their creative career, then set the students their Creative Brief. The class will also join the professional 'live' via Zoom (or similar) for a Q&A following the film. This in total should fill the whole first 1-hour lesson.
- Week 4: Live check-in with the professional setting the brief. This will last a maximum of 45-50 minutes, allowing time for the teacher to set homework afterwards. This will be a structured session guided by the professional. This check-in will also provide an opportunity for the students to share their ideas. The teacher is to select 2-3 students to present their ideas and receive feedback from the professional and their peers.
- Week 8: Live check-in with the professional who set the brief. This will last a maximum of 45-50 minutes. The teacher is to select a group of 4-6 students to present as a sample from the class; the professional will provide feedback once again. Students in the lesson are also encouraged to give constructive feedback to each other.

Advertising & Marketing Skills Builder Universal Framework

Essential Skills: Skills Pairs and Definitions

The Skills Builder Universal Framework shows how to build Essential Skills at every stage of life. To learn more about the Skills Builder approach please click here.

We have identified 3 specific Essential Skills that the students will develop whilst they work on and share their responses to the Creative Brief. They are likely to develop other skills too, but for the purposes of this project, we're encouraging you to focus on observing how your students develop the identified skills, over the course of the 8 weeks.

There are 8 Essential Skills included in the Universal Framework.

The 3 Essential Skills that the Advertising & Marketing Creative Brief is aligned with are:

Advertising & Marketing Aiming High Skill Example:

The reason why 'Aiming High' has been set as an Essential Skill across all of the Creative Briefs, is that we would like to see the students and teachers alike, setting this skill as a milestone from the start of the project.

Teachers should encourage students to think of multiple ideas, before settling on their strongest response to the Creative Brief, rather than picking the first idea that comes to them and running with it.

Aiming High is the ability to set clear, tangible goals and devise a robust route to achieving them.
