INT. HOUSE - DAY

Close up on Presenter

PRESENTER
I'm here with Paul.

The shot widens to take in Paul, we can't see Paul's hands.

PRESENTER (CONT'D)
Paul is cursed with a terrible affliction.

Paul starts to sneeze, lifts his hands to his face, one of them has a bowling ball attached to it, he smacks himself in the face and falls out of shot.

PAUL (O.C.)
(on floor)
Oouch - Achoo!

PRESENTER
Yes, Paul suffers from "Digits
Wedged In Bowling Ball Syndrome", or DWIBBS for short.

Paul staggers up from the ground, rubbing his nose with his free hand.

PRESENTER (CONT'D)
How does DWIBBS affect your life
Paul?

PAUL
Well it nearly got me arrested...

RIPPLE TO:

EXT. CARPARK - DAY

We see Paul approaching his car, fumbling in his pocket for his keys. He reaches for the door, forgetting about the bowling ball, and smashes the window. The car alarm goes off and he looks around nervously. We hear a police siren. Paul pegs it.

We see Paul chased past the camera several times, slowed down by the bowling ball.

EXT. BUS STOP - DAY

We see Paul, exhausted, waiting at a bus stop with an old man behind him in queue.

PAUL (V.O.)
And then it did get me arrested...

The bus approaches, Paul absentmindedly raises his hand to hail the bus, and smacks the old man behind him in the face with the bowling ball.

PAUL

Sorry!

We hear a police siren.

RIPPLE TO:

INT. HOUSE - DAY

PRESENTER

And how did the bowling ball get stuck on your fingers Paul?

The shot widens to reveal a second bowling ball on the table between them.

PAUL

Well, I was bowling, and I picked the ball up, like this...

Paul picks the second ball up with his free hand.

PAUL (CONT'D)

And it just got stuck! Like... oh no!

Michael turns to camera and starts to lay it on thick, beside him Paul tries to get the second bowling ball off. Trying to wedge it under his arm-pit and pull. Putting it on the desk with one foot on it and pulling.

MICHAEL

Life with DWIBBS is terribly hard...

Finally in defeated instinctively puts both hands up to his face in despair and knocks himself over.

MICHAEL (CONT'D)

Imagine trying to get through life with a bowling ball stuck to your hand.

PAUL (O.C.)

(from the floor)

...I've got two now!
