TEACHER RESOURCE

The 8 week Creative Briefs are designed to stimulate real-world thinking and will be supported by a short film/Q&As with the industry professionals who set them. The briefs and accompanying interactive sessions are designed to be delivered remotely and in-line with expected Covid restrictions, with the schools' involvement being supported by Babylon ARTS.

The students will be expected to do 2 hours per week on this project, totalling 16 hours. 8 hours will be delivered in 1-hour lesson times, with the remaining 8 hours being set as homework. The student's response to the Creative Brief should take up 12 of the 16 hours of this project. The other 4 hours will include some time spent by the students researching the particular creative industry sector they are interested in.

Brief Setter: Chip Colquhoun, Editor for Epic Ink & Dave Hingley, Illustrator, Epic Tales.

Epic Tales uses storytelling to help children and young people grow their confidence, creativity, and sense of community. Supported by the EU, Epic storytellers designed and led the world's first research on the impact of storytelling in education, and have since shared the enormous benefits with schools in 8 different countries – but they also regularly enthral audiences at the Glastonbury Festival, the Edinburgh Fringe, the online portal of the world-renowned Oxford Reading Tree, and more. In 2017 Epic also formed “Epic Ink”, a small press publishing children's illustrated literature, including A Little Sport in Littleport, commissioned by Babylon Arts.

Please refer to the written Creative Brief for details.

Accompanying resources provided:

- A written version of the Creative Brief, aimed at the students (digital resource).
- A filmed version of the Creative Brief, aimed at the students (digital resource).
- A printed student workbook will be posted to your school, for each student to fill out throughout the project. Please specify the number of workbooks that you will require.
- Creative Career portfolios for each sub-sector, of which there are 12 (digital resources). Please decide if you would like the students to all look into one creative sub-sector, or if they can research this individually.
- A copy of a Polish folk tale which has multiple possible endings (including the option to create one yourself), provided by Epic Tales.
- A script for the folk tale following one ending, provided by Epic Tales.
- A comic book artist's line drawing from the script, without any text, provided by Epic Tales.

Equipment your class will need to fulfil this Creative Brief:

- Computer access, including access to a layering software tool.

Live Webinars:

Live webinars and check-ins with the professional setting the Creative Brief will take place in weeks 1, 4 & 8.

- Week 1: The in-school lesson will involve the setting of the 'Brief'. The setting of the brief will include a film, in which the professional will provide an insight into their creative career, and set the students their Creative Brief. The class will also join the professional 'live' via Zoom (or similar) for a Q&A following the film. This in total should fill the whole first 1-hour lesson.
- Week 4: Live check-in with the professional setting the brief. This will last a maximum of 45-50 minutes, allowing time for the teacher to set homework afterwards. This will be a structured session guided by the professional. This check-in will also provide an opportunity for the students to share their ideas. The teacher is to select 2-3 students to present their ideas and receive feedback from the professional and their peers.
- Week 8: Live check-in with the professional who set the brief. This will last a maximum of 45-50 minutes. The teacher is to select a group of 4-6 students to present as a sample from the class; the professional will provide feedback once again. Students in the lesson are also encouraged to give constructive feedback to each other.

Publishing Skills Builder Universal Framework

There are 8 Essential Skills included in the Universal Framework.

The 3 Essential Skills that the Publishing Creative Brief is aligned with are:

Aiming High Skill Example:

The reason why 'Aiming High' has been set as an Essential Skill across all of the Creative Briefs, is that we would like to see the students and teachers alike, setting this skill as a milestone from the start of the project.

Teachers should encourage students to think of multiple ideas, before settling on their strongest response to the Creative Brief, rather than picking the first idea that comes to them and running with it.

Aiming High is the ability to set clear, tangible goals and devise a robust route to achieving them.

Aiming High Skill Example:

Here is a breakdown of the first nine steps included in the Essential Skill – Aiming High.

A similar breakdown of the other 7 Essential Skills can be found on the Skills Builder website.

Step	Statement
Step 0	I know when I am finding something too difficult
Step 1	I know what doing well looks like for me
Step 2	I work with care and attention to detail
Step 3	I work with pride when I am being successful
Step 4	I work with a positive approach to new challenges
Step 5	I set goals for myself
Step 6	I set goals informed by an understanding of what is needed
Step 7	I set goals, ordering and prioritise tasks to achieve them
Step 8	I set goals and secure the right resources to achieve them
Step 9	I set goals and plan to involve others in the best way

Getting Started:
Know when I'm finding something difficult and what doing well looks like for me.

Intermediate:
Work with care, pride and a positive approach to challenges.

Advanced:
Set goals for myself and work towards achieving them.

Across all of the Essential Skills, depending on the year group that is participating in this project, we would expect your students to be demonstrating the steps that are grouped 'Getting Started', 'Intermediate' and 'Advanced', over the course of the 8 weeks.

If you require further guidance on the breakdown of each step, click 'BUILD IT' next to the relevant step, on the Skills Builder website. They provide lots of questions to help you unpick how a student is developing their skills and also short explanatory videos.

Here you will find further resources to help you, including building blocks, reflection questions and more.

Building blocks

The building blocks of this step are learning:

- Why new challenges are a good opportunity
- How to find opportunities for stretch

Reflection questions

- Why is it important to be willing to take on new challenges?
- What would happen if we avoided new challenges?
- Can you give any examples of when you have learnt from a new challenge?
- How can you find challenges that work for you?
- What does it mean to work in your stretch zone?

Publishing Suggested Project Timeline:

In weeks 1, 4 & 8 we ask you to log the students' progress with the 3 Essential Skills identified with this Creative Brief, on the Skills Builder Hub.

We have given prompts below based on where we think the students would be at this stage, at a minimum, but please benchmark your students appropriately based on their age and capabilities. Benchmarking and logging your students' progress will allow you and us to measure the success criteria of the Creative Brief project.

To support you in benchmarking your students, please use the resources available to you on the Skills Builder website and hub.
